

Joel Vorensky is the author of three recognized and reviewed classic inspirational books, I Dare to Heal with Compassionate Love (2001), I Dare to Heal with Spiritual Power (2005) and his new book I Dare to Heal with Laughter (2013). The books are treasures and have received five star reviews and awards. The books span the period of the '60s through the present. Mr. Vorensky has participated in myriad New Age activities since 1968, and writes about his experiences. Joel teaches two classes Animated Laughter with Feelings based on his new book "I Dare to Heal with Laughter" and Peer Counseling. The classes have been given at retreats, spiritual centers, and organizations.

Joel is bi-lingual Swedish, and Spanish and reads Hebrew. He has taught at the American Language Institute at San Diego State University. Mr. Vorensky has a forty two year background as a counselor of individuals, couples, and as a peer co-counselor in English and Swedish languages. Joel grew up in Queens, Brooklyn and New York City. He lived in Scandinavia for seven years and spent several years in the State of Israel living in the desert nurturing a peach orchard. For the past twenty-eight years he has made his home in San Diego, California. He has a daughter, now grown, and granddaughter.

Joel holds a degree in Business, Scandinavian Teaching Certification in Early Childhood Education, California teaching credentials in multiple subjects and community college credentials in English and Business. Joel has a recent formal academic background in counseling psychology classes and has obtained his Master's Degree in Psychology Human Behavior from National University, San Diego, California. He has a spiritual counseling practice in San Diego County and is an expert in the field of emotional intelligence. In his books he freely shares his wisdom with all who care to listen and apply it to the task of improving their own lives. His books are written to help others.

Joel has been interviewed many times on national radio and has been interviewed twice on Cable TV. Joel has two websites healthplansinsandiego.com and www.idaretoheal.com.